DEXIAN: PRIME

workforce SOFTWARE · An ADP® Company | dexian®

WORKFORCE SPARK

Summary

Kickstart your workforce management transformation with a streamlined implementation designed to enable improvements and deliver value quickly. This "Starter" package delivers the essential workforce management capabilities, improving compliance, accuracy and efficiency in time and attendance tracking.

Available geographies

Global

Target industries

Manufacturing, energy & utilities, financial services/banking, federal government, higher education

Employee size

Under 5,000

Implementation time

10-12 weeks

Top benefits

Foundational timekeeping solution established within three months.

A scalable foundation for future workforce expansion.

Automation of key time and attendance functions.

Built-in compliance features to help meet regulatory requirements.

Accelerated time-to-value via experienced implementation team and proven methodology.

What's included

ADP WorkForce Software Suite products: Time and Attendance

Additional products: Test automation framework, standard absence management, business process maps, end-user quick reference guides, base product test scripts and project management

Additional services: Full implementation lifecycle, hyper-care support, adoption enablement services and/or ongoing services post-go-live

Partnership overview

Dexian has been servicing WorkForce Software, an ADP company, as a customer since 2016. As a certified partner since 2022, Dexian leverages its global network of certified consultants to assist organizations in optimizing their workforce management processes. Dexian services encompass seamless integrations, data analytics and tailored solutions designed to enhance operational efficiency, simplify compliance and improve employee satisfaction across various industries.

ADP Always Designing for People®